

the more simple sneakers in the collection, which come in nice color combos for good price points. All footwear will go for under 50 USD.

Take a look at many more styles of the STPL x Airwalk Footwear Collection, which is on its way to stores now.

I've always tended to be a fan of the more subtle sneaker design, but recently my tastes have really changed because I've started to really love the exotic palettes that lots of designers are coming up with like the Purple and Orange one in this STPL x Airwalk collection and can definitely see it going brilliantly with a pair of jeans.

Sweet stuff.

I can appreciate the pricepoint. I like the fact that people can afford these. But am I the only one who thinks stpl is overrated? Aside from the NB's I haven't really been impressed.
