Go on a Winter Trek Between Inns

Brandon, Vermont

Crowds flock to Vermont during the fall foliage season, but it's also great for a cozy winter getaway. Spend a winter weekend meandering from one charming country inn to the next in Vermont's Green Mountains.

The accommodations: You'll stay at two different inns on the 3-day journey: century-old Churchill House Inn and antique-furnished Blueberry Hill Inn.

The activities: Depending on the amount of snow, you'll travel on ski, snowshoe or foot through Vermont's Moosalamoo region, seeing breathtaking natural vistas like Silver Lake and the Falls of Lhana as you hike between inns. Enjoy picnic lunches midway through each day's journey and a gourmet dinner each night.

When to go: The trip is offered three times in January and February.
