SANTA FE'S MUSEUM OF NEW MEXICO DEBUTS A LINE OF FURNISHINGS INSPIRED BY THE MULTI-CULTURAL HISTORY OF THE WEST

The Museum of New Mexico, which encompasses four Santa Fe museums, turned to its vast inventory for inspiration when creating its MUSEUM OF NEW MEXICO COLLECTION. The comprehensive line—done in partnership with T. S. Berry for furniture (above), King Hickory for upholstered furniture, Quoizel for lighting, Shaw Living for rugs and Berry Creek for bedding—reflects the range of styles and cultures that came together in the early West. Spanish carving details, Navajo textile motifs and Art Nouveau glass designs all contribute to the mix. Museum of New Mexico Collection, museumfoundation.org

WALL COVERINGS

With current wall coverings that range in style from geometric to botanical to exotic, there's no excuse for blank walls.

1 JANE CHURCHILL The repeating trellis pattern of Dorset, shown in granite, provides a captivating backdrop. REAL ESTATE

Adam's Mark Hotels founder Fred Kummer has turned his eye to real estate with the development of ADAM'S RIB RANCH, a second-home community in Colorado's Vail Valley. Built on his own working ranch, the 1,662-acre community includes an 18-hole Tom Weiskopf-designed golf course, on-site equestrian center, and concierge and limousine services to area activities. Home sites are available from four to ten acres, with custom houses ranging from 3,800 to 4,200 square feet. Adam's Rib Ranch, Eagle, CO, 888.760.2326, adamsribbranch.com
