VICEROY MAYAKOBA, YUCATAN PENINSULA, MEXICO

The Mayakoba resort, ten minutes from the bustling Mexican city of Playa del Carmen, stretches along miles of unspoilt Caribbean coastline and is accessible only by eco-friendly water taxis. The 164 beachfront and lagoon villas have floor-to-ceiling windows, infinity pools and access to a full-service spa, destination restaurant and a Greg Norman-designed golf course, which doubles as a wildlife conservation area. The resort's developers are committed to saving the region's jungle and mangrove forests.
